

1. Grandma has decided to rent out her garden for public use, and has quickly gotten quite a bit of business. Look at the table below and help Grandma write out how long each event making use of her garden will take.

EXAMPLE Step 1: You read that event #A, "Walking with dogs", will last from 2pm to 5pm on 1 August 2019.

Step 2: For event #A, you write "Walking with dogs will take 3 hours." in Kristang.

2. As Grandma's faithful secretary and granddaughter, you've unfortunately noted that there will be inclement weather on the days highlighted in the weather forecast on the right above (in green). Write out how you're going to explain to Grandma that the events on these days will have to be cancelled.

EXAMPLE Step 1: You see that there will be bad weather on 9 August 2019.

Step 2: For event #D, you write "Unfortunately, we cannot have the movie marathon in the garden, because there will be a storm on 9 August 2019."
